

SLEHS Choir Practice Journal

Practice Journals are to be submitted when a student misses a rehearsal for an EXCUSED reason, to make up credit. To receive credit, the student must practice 60 minutes multiplied by the number of classes missed, and submit the completed journal to Mr. Middaugh within one week of the absence. On the journal, students document the days, times, and what they practiced. If a student fails to submit a practice journal within one week, their daily participation points for the day(s) in question becomes a grade of zero. Forms are available in the choir room or on the choir website.
